

Companies hire Keri to assist them with

- On-line assessments for pre-hire selection, creating and implementing development plans for existing employees' career paths or succession planning, and strengthening team dynamics
- Creating virtual One Page Business and Operational plans
- Enhancing employee performance accountability
- Training: sales, supervisory, leadership, email and verbal communication
- Introducing laughter "play-shops" into the serious business world we live in today

Our programs focus on 6 essentials for employee optimization

- Monthly 3-hour learning bursts for sequential development of Sales People
- Monthly training for emerging leaders, supervisors or managers
- Increasing company sales
- Social Styles™ to improve communication on all levels
- Building high performing teams
- Leadership development and cohesiveness

About Keri

In July 2008, Keri Stewart founded Results 4 Business, an Albuquerque based business consulting firm fueling her passion for developing employees to reach their potential and organizations achieve their aspirations and vision.

Keri's background includes employment with Coca-Cola, Dr Pepper of Albuquerque, Northwestern Mutual Financial Services, Prudential Overall Supply, Norrell Temporary Services and DeLaPorte and Associates.

A partial client list includes Sandia National Labs, USDA Forest Service, Amerind, Steamatic, Lucky Friday Silver Mine and Syracuse China, a division of Libbey Glass. For more information, please visit her website.