

About Keri

Keri is an engaging, interactive speaker, facilitator and presenter who weaves life stories, hands-on lessons, a variety of take-away points to make the session relevant, fun and memorable. Her style is humorous, conversational, fun and enlightening. Regularly requested as a keynote speaker, and hired by companies to train, coach and develop employee skills in the areas of: UPFRONT Presentations skills for individuals and teams, Leadership, Communications, Sales, Customer Service and Planning.

Partial Speaking Engagement list:

- ✓ Realtor Association of New Mexico
 - ✓ Greater Albuquerque Chamber of Commerce
 - ✓ Young Professionals Association
 - ✓ Insurance Professional Conference
 - ✓ Farmington Regional Leadership Conference
 - ✓ DECA Regional Conference
 - ✓ Credit Professionals International
 - ✓ BeautiControl
 - ✓ Native American Human Resource Association
 - ✓ American Business Women Association
 - ✓ Professional Business Coaches Association
 - ✓ Association of College & University Printers
-

Professional Experience

13 years organizational planning, consulting, facilitation, training and employee development in the areas of UPFRONT presentations, leadership, communication, leading change, customer service and consultative sales skills within a variety of industries including: technology, manufacturing, scientific, mining, industrial equipment, pharmaceuticals and financial institutions.

Keri's background includes employment with Coca-Cola, Dr Pepper of Albuquerque, Northwestern Mutual Financial Services, DLP and Associates, Prudential Overall Supply, SignArt of New Mexico and Norrell Temporary Services.

Strategic Business Certifications / Affiliations: Distinguished Toastmaster Designation, UPFRONT Persuasion Through Presentation, The One Page Business Plan, SOCIAL STYLE™, Winslow Assessments, Graduate of Coaching for Professional and Personal Mastery Program (CPPM) with the Newfield Network, Certified Professional Business Coach and Wilson Learning Certified Facilitator of the ear.

References available upon request.